11. DATE Nov. 5, 1969 14. DISPOSAL AUTHORITY (Schedule and Item No.)

These records relate to: research, studies and related material pertaining to aviation training; individual and technical training; computer-assisted instruction as it might be applied within the Dept of Defense; resource and research material on the subject of training technology; officer and enlisted career structures and educational programs; aviation safety; manpower utilization and training; and physical training programs.

From January 1966 until August 1968, this office was called the "Individual Training Directorate" of M&RA and concentrated on studies and programs in that broad area. A major emphasis during this period was on the subject of pilot training and Project 100,000.
